

THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

As we celebrate the real presence of the Lord in the Eucharist, we believe in the transforming power of Christ's love. The Eucharist in word and sacrament nourishes us as we grow in holiness and as we are empowered to share our time, talent and treasure.

The poem "Praise the Shaper of Hearts" written by Joyce Rupp, O.S.M. is a prayerful opportunity to give God thanks. Thanksgiving is what the Greek word "Eucharist" means in English.

ACTIVITY:

As you reflect on each stanza ask:

- "How do I experience God in this way?"
- "How am I being called to share this gift with others?"

PRAISE TO THE SHAPER OF HEARTS

Praise to the One whose love stirs the ancient embers sparks the breath of prayer

Praise to the One whose love entices the wandering beckons the confused

Praise to the One whose love grows wings on the weary dreams hope in the discouraged

Praise to the One whose love dips deeply into diversity pours forth boundless beauty

Praise to the One whose love soothes the ointment of mercy transforms with the touch of compassion

Praise to the One whose love threads the energy of friendship stiches the strength of fidelity

Praise to the One whose love tickles the souls with laughter urges the heart toward joy

Praise to the One whose love
embraces the untamed dances with the passionate

All praise to this Gracious One All gratitude to this Beloved All love to this Mentor of Friendship All devotion to the Shaper of Hearts.

Jesus said to our parish patron St. Philip, "Whoever believes in me will do the works I do and even great works." John 14:22

Our Jubilee Prayer

Rejoicing in you, O Lord, with thankful hearts we pray as . . .

We Remember
