St. Philip the Apostle Youth Choir

IMPORTANT INFORMATION The St. Philip Youth Choir rehearses regularly during the school year from September through early June. Rehearsals are scheduled from 3:00 to 4:05 on Monday afternoons as indicated on the printed Youth Choir schedule and the Parish Calendar, and are held in church. It is important for all choir members to attend rehearsals regularly. Missing more than three rehearsals consecutively would result in being considered for dismissal from the choir. The choir sings at one weekend liturgy at St. Philip the Apostle Church each month during the choir season. Singers will be given a schedule for the entire choir season, which will list all scheduled weekend liturgies as well as other important events. Failure to attend the scheduled liturgies two times consecutively would result in being considered for dismissal from the choir. The choir will also participate in the Annual Service of Lessons and Carols, the Christmas Eve Family Liturgy and the Palm Sunday 12:00 noon liturgy. Failure to honor these commitments without ample prior notice to the Director will result in being dismissed from the choir. Any disruptive behavior on the part of any choir member during rehearsal or performance will result in being dismissed from the choir.
