

PALM SUNDAY

OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD

Hosanna!

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!

Saint Philip the Apostle Parish

CLIFTON, NEW JERSEY

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Parishioners,

In our Lord's passion every single character could be the object of a deeply Christological interpretation on the part of theologians and experts in the biblical texts. Every single detail tells us something about the consequences of the Mystery of the Incarnation. For that reason, everything could be the ideal object of meaningful reflection.

There is a curious homily of St. Ambrose devoted entirely to the animalem Messiasum, (animal of the Messiah) the donkey on which our Lord was acclaimed in his entrance to the royal city of Jerusalem. There are some other fragments in the biblical text, as well as other venerable traditions, in which this honorable animal is an important agent of the story, but probably none of them show through the donkey's image the glory of the one venerated today. A donkey without name, chosen by our Lord himself, its exact location known to Him, served the king of Kings and Lord of Lords as the brave horse Bucephalus did to Alexander or the thousands of Carthaginian elephants to Hannibal.

The resemblance to the human soul is obvious: the Lord uses the lowliest thing as a dwelling place of his glory; but what perhaps is more difficult to grasp is the natural suitability of this animal for the required office. The donkey is well known for being humble; however, it is in fact a really proud animal which needs to be educated in the works that its master requires of it. It is also a very strong animal, and for that reason a very reliable instrument for the hardest work. Moreover, the donkey brings its rider to the level of the people on the streets due to its short stature. Therefore, the donkey is the perfect animal for a triumphal entrance into the world, humble, strong and reliable, virtues that are a conditio sine qua non for the disciples of Jesus Christ.

The entrance of the King of Israel into the structures of the world is something that the world itself cannot understand. It is up to us to be defeated in our stubbornness and hardness of heart for the sake of a man who rides a donkey, a donkey that was considered in its inner real value and not through the glasses of a sick world.

May you all have a blessed Holy Week!

Peace,
Fr. Monteleone

ST. PHILIP PREPARATORY SCHOOL

During Lent we show special concern for those in need.

We follow Jesus's example of helping those less fortunate than ourselves.

The fourth grade is sponsoring a used book sale this week to raise money for Mercy House and Eva's Village. These are local charities that help families in need in many ways, including serving daily prepared meals. The students have collected gently used books and are holding a three-day sale. All classes are invited to come browse and pick up some bargain books. The fourth grade is preparing during this season of Lent by learning to give to others.

Save the Date for St. Philip Prep's TREP$ Marketplace run by our own student entrepreneurs!

Saturday, May 20th from 10:00 - 11:30 AM.

More information to follow.

SPIRITUAL OPPORTUNITIES

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY
Join us on Sunday, April 16th
at 3 PM in the church for Holy Hour and recitation of the Chaplet of the Divine Mercy.

*Holy God, Holy Mighty One, Holy
Immortal One, have mercy on us and on the whole world.*

FAMILY HOLY HALF HOUR

Saint Philip would like to welcome all families with young children to a family holy HALF hour on Friday, April 21st, at 5:30 PM in Marian Hall in the Molloy Center. A Holy Hour is where we are in the presence of Jesus in the Eucharist, exposed in front of us, on the altar. It is a beautiful experience that families often miss out on due to fear of their children's inability to sit still for long durations. This format is geared towards kids by shortening the time to a half hour and having music and activities that will help your children and you, as parents, understand the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. We encourage you to come and spend time with Jesus as a family.

If you have any questions, please speak with Fr. Nico, or call the Parish Office at
(973) 779 6200.

AND OF THE SON, AND OF THE HOLY SPIRIT. AMEN.

Find these prayers (with help from your parents) in a prayer book or online at <http://www.newadvent.org/images/rosary.pdf>.

The word Rosary means "Crown of Roses". Our Lady has revealed to several people that each time they say a Hail Mary they are giving her a beautiful rose and that each complete Rosary makes her a crown of roses. The rose is the queen of flowers, and so the Rosary is the rose of all devotions and it is therefore the most important one.

Rosaries can be prayed for a special intention and is a way to give reverence to God for all that He does for us. Rosaries can be prayed for positive experiences in school, for the health of a loved one who is sick or for other little children all around the world. You choose the intent and use rosary time to focus on that.
