FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Dear Parishioners,

There is little doubt that the leper in today's gospel had a deep respect for Jesus. Who would not honor someone who healed them of leprosy? But if this is the case, how do we explain the obvious disobedience of the leper to Jesus' command? Jesus says, "See to it that you tell no one anything." Yet this man immediately goes out and publicizes everything that had happened, speaking to everyone. How do we explain that this man ignored Jesus' desire to keep things quiet?

The simplest explanation is that there are some secrets that cannot be kept. There are some blessings too wonderful to hold in. In other words, this story of the leper is a story of the power of joy.

When the man sees that his leprosy is removed, when he realizes that he is again made whole, the joy of his healing consumes him. He cannot do anything but proclaim it to everyone he meets—regardless of what Jesus has commanded him. His proclamation has a tremendous effect. Hundreds of people start coming to Jesus so that Jesus can no longer enter into the towns openly. People are persuaded that what this former leper said was true not simply by the argumentation of his words, but by the authority of his joy. They could see in the brightness of his eye, in the enthusiasm of his presence, the promise that if they too went to Jesus, they too could encounter the love of God.

So, the leper in today's gospel is a model for us. All too often, our lives lack the power of joy. We know our faith. We can recite the creed. We come to mass. We believe in God's existence. Yet how many people can see in us the joy of God's presence or the enthusiasm of belonging to Christ? Do people see in our lives the energy of the good news, or do we appear much like everyone else, including those who do not believe in God at all.

The power of joy is important because it has the authority to change the human heart. The possession of that joy is not only important for the sake of others—so they can see Christ in us—it is also important for us. We need joy in order to claim the blessings that God has given us.

There is an ancient rabbinic teaching that describes the last judgment at the end of time. According to this rabbinic teaching, every person will stand before God, the judge. In that moment God will lay before each person all of the blessings that he or she has received and then say, "How many of these blessings did you enjoy, and how many did you ignore?" According to this ancient rabbinic wisdom, our very salvation depends upon our openness to enjoy the blessings that God has given us.

You know that this is true. We all know people who have everything, who are blessed in every way, and yet they are not happy. They cannot connect their lives to the power of joy. These people do not need to wait for the judgment on the last day—they are already condemned. Already, they are lost.

So, the example of the leper in today's gospel is an example we should follow. He was so filled with the joy of what God did for him that he could not keep silent. It is unlikely that there is anyone here who has been cured of leprosy, but every one of us has blessings in which we can rejoice. All of us have life, some of us have health, and some of us have the love and respect of family and friends. Some of us have jobs that we enjoy, accomplishments that we can be proud of, and financial resources that give us options which many other people do not have.

What is important here is not simply to have these blessings, but to find joy in them. Joy gives us power. When we are people of joy, we have the power to be generous, the power to forgive, the power to serve, and the power to live. But, if we lack the power of joy, what will be speechless before God on the last day. Without joy, our faith is empty—not only as a witness to others but even for ourselves.

Peace,
Fr. Monteleone

ST. PHILIP PREPARATORY SCHOOL

Greetings in Christ Jesus

Last week was an extraordinary week for our school.
We celebrate the Catholic Schools Week with great joy. Each day we dedicate it to a different topic.
“Celebrate our Community”, “Celebrate our School”,
“Celebrate our Vocations”, “Celebrate our Students”
(Buddy Day) and “Celebrate our Church”.

It was very fun to see the expression of the joy of the kids when they saw the middle school students singing, dancing, and playing musical instruments for them. The admiration of the kids for their middle school friends was the maximum expression.

Middle school students are a great inspiration for kids.
And I have been able to see how the kids receive from their friends very good examples to follow in terms of the cooperative nature and healthy relationships that our school offers.

This week we continue with this sense of cooperation and study as the NEWA exams begin. It is another opportunity to continue showing our Catholic values.

We wish our students the best and that they do their best to obtain excellent results in their exams.
Remember that: “Effort is the key to success”
May God bless you all and much success in the NEWA exams.

Gospel Today
Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time | Mark 1:40-45

Jesus cured the leper, a man with a skin disease, with a touch of His hand.

Year B

When the leper was healed, Jesus said, "Don't tell this to anyone." Jesus trusted the man to go quietly to the priest, but instead he ran off telling everyone he was cured. He did NOT keep it a secret (he was very excited). As a result, Jesus could no longer enter a town openly, but stayed in lonely places. Still, people kept coming to Him from everywhere. Jesus gave the leper new life...

LENT begins this week... Give us New Life, O Lord.

Dear Jesus... I have sinned, I am sorry, let's begin again. Love, _____ your name

SHROVE TUESDAY

also known as... FAT TUESDAY = MARDI GRAS = PANCAKE DAY

It is a tradition to eat pancakes on Shrove Tuesday. Shrove comes from the word "shrive", meaning to confess, or tell God we are sorry for our sins. Pancakes use up food items that were not permitted during Lent in the Middle Ages - milk, eggs, fat, butter and meat. Lent begins tomorrow - Let's eat pancakes today!

The ashes on my forehead say,
"I have sinned, I am sorry. Please God, help me change, make me a new person."

Homemade Pancakes

SIFT	MIX IN
1 1/4 cup flour	1 beaten egg
3 teaspoons baking powder	1 cup milk
2 tablespoons sugar	2 tablespoons vegetable oil
1/2 teaspoon salt

Cook on greased, hot skillet. Flip when bubbles appear and pop. Makes 8, 4" pancakes — Serving with butter, syrup, fruit or meat is optional.

GRIEF SHARE AT SAINT PHILIP'S

Need help dealing with grief?

A prayerful support group can help you move through the grief process.

A GriefShare support group is a safe, welcoming place where people understand the difficult emotions of grief.

Through this 13-week group, you'll discover what to expect in the days ahead and what's "normal" in grief. Since there are no neat, orderly stages of grief, you'll learn helpful ways of coping with grief, in all its unpredictability—and gain solid support each step of the way.

The next GriefShare session at Saint Philip's is on Monday, February 12, 2024 at 6:30 PM in the Youth Room of Jubilee Wing Building of the Molloy Center.

For questions, please call the Parish Office at (973) 779 6200.
