FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

My Dear Parishioners,

Today's Gospel passage is the first twelve verses of the fifth chapter of Matthew: the start of the Sermon on the Mount. In our own day, preachers often start a sermon with a story or a joke. Jesus decided to begin His Sermon on the Mount with the Beatitudes.

However, before he starts giving us Jesus' sermon, St. Matthew the Evangelist mentions a few interesting details about Jesus. The evangelist relates to us that when "Jesus saw the crowds, He went up the mountain, and after He had sat down, His disciples came to Him." Consider just two points here: that Jesus went up the mountain, and that He sat down there.

Why did Jesus have to go up a mountain in order to preach a sermon? Obviously, He didn't have to. Jesus preached many other sermons during the three years of His public ministry, and most of them were preached in other settings. But in St. Matthew's account of the Gospel, the Sermon on the Mount is Jesus' first sermon, so Jesus is teaching us here not only by His words, but also by the setting that He chose, and by choosing to sit down.

Why did Jesus choose a mountain to be the site of His first sermon? St. Matthew clarifies this throughout the course of his Gospel account. Through the way he structures his Gospel account, St. Matthew portrays Jesus as a New Moses. Both the mountain setting and act of sitting to reach His disciples reflect this. One reason for portraying Jesus as the New Moses is that unlike many other New Testament books, Matthew's Gospel account was written for converts from Judaism.

Moses was, for the Jewish people, the Prophet without peer. In the last chapter of the last book of the Jewish Law—Deuteronomy Chapter 34—following the description of Moses' death, the Bible says that "there has not arisen a prophet since in Israel like Moses, whom the Lord knew face to face, none like him for all the signs and the wonders which the Lord sent him to do in the land of Egypt, ... and for all the mighty power and all the great and terrible deeds which Moses wrought in the sight of all Israel" [Deut 34:10-12].

Yet even more important than all the signs and wonders and all the great and terrible deeds which Moses worked was the fact that the Lord chose him—Moses—to bear the Ten Commandments to His People. During the course of their Exodus from slavery in Egypt to freedom in the Promised Land, God's People stopped at Mount Sinai. There, while the rest of God's People remained below, Moses alone ascended Sinai to receive from God His Ten Commandments. Moses then had to descend the mountain to give to God's People this Law, the means by which His People might keep right with God.

But here in St. Matthew's account of the Gospel, it's not only Jesus who ascends the mountain. Jesus draws His disciples up with Him. In turn, it's not a voice from the heavens that speaks there to a prophet. Instead, the New Moses, God in the Flesh, speaks to His people face to face. Jesus gives to us, His people, not ten commandments, but nine beatitudes.

There is a wealth of spiritual riches within the beatitudes. But keep in mind that Jesus put the Beatitudes at the start of the Sermon on the Mount because a good teacher puts the most important lesson first. Likewise, then, we ought to consider the first of the nine beatitudes as being first for a reason.

Maybe as you ponder all nine of the Beatitudes, another of them—not the first—will strike you. Meditate on that beatitude during the week. But meditate nonetheless on the first beatitude: first to fall from Our Lord's lips because He wants it first to shape our hearts.

The Lord has given us everything we need for the journey to Heaven. He's given us life, grace to strengthen us for the journey, and the journey's roadmap in these nine beatitudes. The first, upon which all the others rest, is humility: poverty of spirit. The Lord has even helped us to acquire humility. We do so by gazing upon the humility He shows in His compassion, His Divine Mercy, and His self-sacrifice on the Cross.

Peace,

Fr. Monteleone

ST. PHILIP PREPARATORY SCHOOL

The faculty, staff and students at St Philip Prep have embarked on the second half of the academic year with their characteristic enthusiasm, positive attitudes, and diligence. The students in 5th to 8th grade have completed their midterm examinations and are ready to start fresh for the second semester.

The Literature Kaleidoscope program is in full swing with the students embarking on a discovery and love of poetry. What an engaging tool to process emotions, empathy, and build confidence through self-expression! The students are also keeping busy reading some of the classics such as The Great Gatsby, The Outsiders, and Wonder to name a few. Critical thinking, sophisticated writing, and connecting literature across disciplines is what they engage in on a daily basis. A recent essay on the topic of “God Is Music to our Ears” and an art project painting music disks helped launch the theme of Catholic School’s Week.

The St. Philip School participated in many special events for Catholic Schools Week. The flurry of activities began on Tuesday, after our snow day, with a special 9AM mass celebrated by Bishop Sweeney. Some of the activities during this week included Buddy Day/Ice Cream Social, Career Day Presentations by the parents, Jersey Day and Favorite Princess/Superhero Day, and even a Chili Cookout! Tours were given to prospective students and their families throughout the week to witness first-hand what makes the St Philip’s student body good, better, best!

Brother Knights will be selling tickets after weekend Masses in the church vestibule at a yet to be determined weekend shortly. "WHY, FATHER?" by Fr. Emerson

Q: Father, the Beatitudes sound beautiful—but are they realistic? 🤔 How can Jesus call the poor, the meek, and those who suffer “blessed” in a world that prizes success 💼, power 💪, and comfort 🛋️?

A: The Beatitudes are not sentimental poetry or unrealistic ideals—they are Jesus' declaration of what true happiness really is 👑💡. Christ does not deny the reality of suffering. Instead, He reveals that those who remain faithful to God in the midst of hardship are not forgotten or defeated. They are blessed because their hearts are open to grace 🙏. Christianity does not promise ease or constant success. It promises meaning, redemption, and eternal life ✝️. The Beatitudes challenge the world's obsession with wealth 💰, influence 🏆, and control. They proclaim that lasting joy is not found in what we possess, but in who possesses us—God ❤️.

That is why the saints could live with peace even in suffering ☀️. They believed Jesus when He said that the Kingdom of Heaven belongs to those who trust Him, even when the path is narrow.

Feast of the Presentation of the Lord (February 2)

Q: Father, if Jesus is truly God ☩, why is He presented in the Temple—and why does this feast focus so strongly on light and candles 🕯 ?

A: The Presentation reveals a profound truth: God enters His Temple in humility, not in power 🙏. Mary and Joseph faithfully obey the Law by offering Jesus to the Father—not because He belongs to the Law, but because He fulfills it 📖 ✨.

Simeon proclaims Jesus as the Light for revelation to the nations 🌍 ☀. This is why the Church blesses candles today. The light is not merely symbolic—it points to Christ Himself, the Light who enters the darkness of the world.

Simeon also foretells that Jesus will be a sign of contradiction ✖. Christ will be embraced by some and rejected by others, but that division reveals truth. The Presentation reminds us that the Cross is already present at the beginning of Jesus' life ☩. The Child offered in the Temple will one day offer Himself on Calvary. The Light has come—and the cost of salvation has already begun.
