FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

My Dear Parishioners,

It is so easy to look with contempt and bemusement at many of the characters we encounter in the Scriptures. The Israelites saw the Red Sea open before them as they were freed from slavery, yet they consistently complained about the Lord's lack of generosity. The Apostles saw miracle after miracle; how could they doubt that Jesus was who He said he was? But our First Reading is perhaps the best example of them all.

Adam and Eve have everything. They were created exclusively out of God's love and given everything they would need. God has poured out endless generosity and goodness upon them. He has one rule... that they cannot eat from the tree of knowledge of good and evil, the exclusive domain of God... but they can do anything else. Yet they are seemingly easily caught by a simple deceit of the serpent. How could they have believed that God was keeping something from them? How could they doubt God's goodness with everything they had seen?

A priest once asked us in seminary, "What is the hardest doctrine for people to believe?" When we answered, "The Immaculate Conception," "The Virgin Birth," or "Transubstantiation," the priest simply shook his head and said, "People have struggles with all of those, but the hardest doctrine for people to believe is that God loves them." While this seems absurd at first glance, the experience of Adam and Eve proves it to be true.

Adam and Eve ignore everything God has done for them and rebel against Him because they think He is not a good Father. They assume that He is keeping something from them, and that if they do it their own way, they will be happier. They forget God's goodness and quickly resort to their own designs.

The result is predictable and relatable, if only because we have done the same thing thousands of times. Adam and Eve quickly realize that rebellion against the Father leads only to sadness and isolation. The same happens with us. God gives us blessing after blessing, yet at the first hint that maybe I do not have everything I want, I assume God is holding back on me, and I choose my own thing. I rebel, get hurt, God forgives me... and then I'll go through the cycle again! This is the sad human condition after the Fall.

Christ's fasting and triumph over the Devil in the desert provides us with a better way. The devil uses the same tricks as he used with Adam and Eve. "You could have more." "You could be more popular." "You could be more powerful." Yet where Adam and Eve fell, Christ stands strong. After each temptation, Christ acknowledges that His Father has a plan, and that real joy comes only from trusting Him.

We have begun the great adventure of Lent, where we enter the desert with Christ. Our prayers, fasts, and almsgiving give us the opportunity to trust that God is who He says He is. When I get a little hungry, don't want to go to stations, or give some of my extra resources to charity, I'm implicitly telling the Father that He can make me happier than I can make myself. Every pang of hunger, check I write, or prayer time I spend gives me the chance to do what Adam and Eve cannot do: trust the Father!

While much of my life has been a mirror image of the experience of Adam and Eve, this Lent grants me the opportunity to follow Christ's lead and put my Faith in the God who can never let me down.

Peace,

Fr. Monteleone

ST. PHILIP PREPARATORY SCHOOL

As we enter the season of Lent, we encourage our students to focus on their prayer life, as we pray the Stations of the Cross each week. We teach our students to find quiet moments of reflection while walking through their busy school lives. We remind our students to also practice self-discipline and “stretch themselves” by giving up small comforts, shouldering character building, and concentrating their efforts to prioritize the poor, the lost, and the left out, fostering empathy and social responsibility. Applications for New families for the 2026-2027 School year are being accepted now. Applications can be found and submitted at stphilipprep.com under New Student Application.

Completed applications include:

- Standardized Test Scores
- Current Academic Records
- Current ISP/ IEP, if applicable
- References

Academic Records and References need to be uploaded and attached to the application. There is a $75 non-refundable application fee. All detailed information regarding the school can be found on our website stphilipprep.com under 2026-2027 Registration. "WHY, FATHER?" by Fr. Emerson

Q: Father, if Jesus is truly God ☩, how could He be tempted by the devil? 😞 Doesn't temptation imply weakness? How can Christ be divine and yet experience temptation?

A: This question goes straight to the heart of Christian belief. If Jesus is God, and God cannot sin, then what does it mean that He was tempted in the desert? The key is understanding who Jesus truly is: one divine Person with two natures—fully God and fully man

 In His divine nature, Christ cannot sin. God is perfect holiness. But in His human nature, Jesus truly experienced hunger 🍞, exhaustion, loneliness, and the external pressure of temptation. The Gospel says He fasted for forty days. That is not symbolic suffering—it is real human weakness.

Temptation itself is not sin. Being tempted means being tested. Hebrews 4:15 tells us that Jesus was "tempted in every way, yet without sin." ✨ The devil tempts Him not because Christ is flawed, but because Christ has truly entered our human condition.

Notice something important: each temptation attacks His identity—"If you are the Son of God..." 🔄 The battle is not about proving power; it is about obedience.

The devil tempts Jesus to use divine power for comfort, fame, or control. But Jesus refuses. He quotes Scripture   and remains faithful to the Father.

Christianity does not present a distant God who watches suffering from afar. It proclaims a God who steps into the battlefield of temptation. In the desert, Jesus succeeds where Adam failed. He resists the devil not by overwhelming force, but by obedient trust.

His temptation shows two things at once:

- 1 He is truly human—able to experience testing.
- 2 He is truly divine—incapable of sin and victorious over evil.

Lent begins here because Christ shows us that temptation is not defeat. It is an arena for grace. Jesus was tempted not because He is less than God, but because He is Emmanuel—God with us  .

And because He conquered temptation, we are not alone in ours.

GOD BLESS THE NEWLY BAPTIZED
