FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

My Dear Parishioners,

As the weeks of the Easter Season draw on, we hear more and more in the Scriptures at Holy Mass about God the Holy Spirit. We hear less and less about Jesus, or so it seems.

In the forty days between His Resurrection and His Ascension to Heaven, Jesus is—so to speak—weaning His disciples. He's helping them realize that He's not going to be with them in the same way anymore. He will be with them: He'll be with them always, "unto the end of the age." But He will not be with them physically as He was during the three years of His public ministry. He will not be at their sides to point the way or for them to talk face-to-face.

Yet God the Holy Spirit will make Jesus Christ present in a new way. In a sense, that's what the Easter Season is designed by God to lead us to. Pentecost Sunday is not just the fiftieth of fifty days celebrating Jesus' Resurrection. Pentecost is the culmination of the Season of Easter. As such, Pentecost is the celebration of God the Holy Spirit making Jesus present in this world in a new way: that is, the Church.

We hear about this new way in the midst of the Third Eucharistic Prayer at Holy Mass. Almost the whole second half of the Eucharistic Prayer—following the consecration—is about the Church. The priest prays one petition after another on behalf of the Church. In the Third Eucharistic Prayer, in the second petition following the consecration, the priest prays: "... grant that we, who are nourished by the Body and Blood of your Son, and filled with his Holy Spirit, may become one body, one spirit in Christ." This unity in Christ is what the Easter Season leads us towards and is the heart of the mystery of Pentecost.

This is one reason why the Church calls all of us—her children—together on the Lord's Day: not only to be united with God through Holy Communion, but also to be united more strongly with each other. The Mass—like the whole Christian life—is not just about me and Jesus. Coming together through the Mass is the greatest way that God has to unite us poor, fallen sinners into the one body of the Church. The Holy Spirit is the One who helps us see why and how this is.

The Holy Spirit, like the ligaments that hold parts of our physical bodies together, binds us together to make us one body in Christ. Even when we are separated from our loved ones by great distances, or even by death itself, the Holy Spirit sustains our relationships. The Body of Christ cannot be diminished or destroyed by distance or death. Indeed, the Church is not limited to those among her children living on earth (called the Church Militant). She is also made up of those in Purgatory (the Church Suffering) and in Heaven (the Church Triumphant).

Even more challenging than the barriers of distance and death is that of division. The Holy Spirit helps us love others even when it is difficult to do so. The Power of the Holy Spirit helps us love others as God the Father loves them, part of which love is beckoning them into His embrace in Heaven. If you were to die, only to find your worst enemy at the Pearly Gates as the welcoming committee, would you refuse to enter? Is your lack of love for your enemy stronger than your love to be with God?

Likewise, the Power of the Holy Spirit helps us love others as God the Son loves them. More specifically, the Holy Spirit helps us love others as the Son loved them on Good Friday during those hours when He was fixed by nails to the Cross. In His divine intellect, Jesus at the hour of His death could see every human sinner in history, the future, and that solemn hour. Not only could Jesus see them, however. He loved them by offering His life for theirs.

Everyone around us is an important part of our spiritual life, whether we want them to be or not. Everyone plays a part in our journey on the Way of Christ Jesus. Sometimes that Way is narrow. Sometimes it demands reconciliation. The Holy Spirit is not interested in "cheap love". The Holy Spirit leads us into the sort of love that led Jesus to Calvary: the sort of love which allowed Christ to embrace the Cross as His Father's gift.

Peace,
Fr. Monteleone

PLEASE NOTE

HOLY DAY

The Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord has been permanently transferred in the Dioceses of New Jersey, replacing the Seventh Sunday of Easter. This year that is Sunday, May 17, 2026
All Sundays are Holy Days of Obligation.

ST. PHILIP PREPARATORY SCHOOL

To recognize the United States semiquincentennial anniversary, each grade level is preparing for our grand school wide celebration of the 250th anniversary. Students will travel throughout the school on May 15 to learn about all things America. From monument replicas to an interactive wax museum and an all American luncheon sponsored by the HSA the day is sure to be amazing.

Please keep our second graders and their families in your prayers as they prepare for First Holy Communion. The 2nd grade students will be attending a Jesus Retreat Day Friday May 8, 2026. They will watch a video, complete a craft and re-enact the Last Supper.

Our 8th graders are working hard preparing for final exams and wrapping up the year with fun activities as they move towards Graduation in just one month.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

This year our Parish is jumping with excitement as we are having Rainforest Falls, a special Vacation Bible Fun program created especially for Catholic children. Our program will provide memorable scripture-based activities, games, snacks and interactive Bible adventures. Children will collect Bible Memory-Buddies and People of Faith cards, and create fun crafts to take home.

Rainforest Falls is an exciting way for kids to learn more about their faith. Each day concludes at Rainforest Falls Finale...a send off that celebrates that day. We hope Rainforest Falls will give our children a wonderful experience of fun and faith this summer.

Rainforest Falls begins on July 27th and continues through July 31, 2026.

Time 8:45 am to Noon daily.

Save the dates!

REGISTRATION IS LIMITED TO 48

CHILDREN...only $25 per child.

WITH THANKS

Last weekend was another amazing turnout for our Food Collection! Many parishioners who were at the 12 noon Mass just pitched in and helped us load our cars with the heavy bags of food! Remember, “Everything we do should be a result of our gratitude for what God has done for us.” Lauryn Hill. We thank all the parishioners who so generously donated. Remember, the food pantry needs volunteers, so if interested, please call Mary Ann 973-809-7120.

“WHY, FATHER” by Fr. Emerson

Q: Father, Jesus says He will ask the Father to send “another Advocate” 🙏. Does that mean Jesus is also an Advocate? Who is the other Advocate? And how does this Gospel reveal the unity of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit in the Trinity? 🙏✝️

A: This Gospel is a treasure chest of Catholic belief because, in just a few verses, Jesus reveals the mystery of the Most Holy Trinity: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

Jesus says, “I will ask the Father, and He will give you another Advocate to be with you always.” Notice the three Persons: Jesus the Son asks, the Father gives, and the Holy Spirit comes 🙏🔥. They are distinct Persons, but never separated in will, love, or divine mission.

The word Advocate means helper, defender, counselor, or one who stands beside us. So yes, the Holy Spirit is the Advocate. But Jesus says “another” Advocate, which implies that there is already an Advocate: Jesus Himself ✝️. In fact, St. John later writes, “We have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous” (1 John 2:1). Jesus is our Advocate before the Father; the Holy Spirit is our Advocate dwelling within us and guiding the Church.

This does not mean there are two competing helpers. It means the Son and the Spirit work together in perfect unity. Jesus saves us through His Passion, Death, and Resurrection; the Holy Spirit applies that saving grace to our souls, strengthens us, teaches us, and keeps us faithful.

Jesus also says, “Whoever loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and reveal myself to him.” That is a clear hint of the unity of the Father and the Son. To love Jesus is to be drawn into the love of the Father. Jesus is not merely a prophet pointing to God; He shares divine life with the Father 🙏💎.

Then Jesus says, “I will not leave you orphans.” What a powerful promise! Christianity is not God giving us rules and then walking away. God comes to dwell in us. Through the Holy Spirit, Christ remains present in His Church, in the sacraments, and in every baptized soul.

So, this Gospel teaches us that we are not abandoned. Jesus intercedes for us, the Father loves us, and the Holy Spirit lives within us. The Trinity is not a puzzle to solve, but a divine communion of love into which we are invited.

We are defended, guided, loved, and never left alone.
