FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

My Dear Parishioners,

I will never forget the last time I missed Sunday Mass. I was eleven years old and my dad, brother, and myself joined some family and friends on a camping weekend on the eastern end of Long Island. It was a fun-filled trek, but due to bad weather and slow children, we got out of the camp site later than we expected on Sunday. We had picked out a Church for Mass in advance, but by the time we got there we had missed their last service. In the days before smart phones, we struggled to find other options. I remember us pulling into a Church and just pulling on the locked doors, hoping we could get lucky. By Sunday evening we had given up and started the long drive home.

When we eventually pulled back into Nesconset, my dad parked the car in the garage, took a deep breath, and said to my brother and I: I know you boys loved that trip, and so did I. But we won't ever go on it again, because I won't ever put you in a situation to miss Mass ever again. My brother and I were annoyed. We didn't do anything wrong; we truly tried our best. Why the big deal?

In the years that followed, I learned to truly value that experience. I'm glad my dad was so serious about Sunday Mass. I'm grateful that it was non-negotiable, and that everything else came second to the Lord. I haven't missed Mass since that day years ago.

This weekend, we celebrate the great Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. It should be celebrated with great pomp and circumstance, as it is the reminder of the Source and Summit of our Faith! Holy Mass, Adoration, the reception of Holy Communion, are all highways of grace and mercy pouring into our hearts. Our lives are enriched and strengthened by this Bread of Angels, granted to us by our merciful God. Of course, receiving Holy Communion, sitting in Adoration, and attending Sunday Mass are helpful... but does it really matter if I skip it?

The real question is... what is more important? Sure, we have busy schedules, family functions, sporting events, and fun vacations. Those are all worthy and important. But if Jesus Christ truly died on a Cross, rose from the dead, and gave me His Body and Blood to eat and drink, is there anything more important? If the Mass really is the re-presentation of Calvary, what could be a priority over that? And if it is true that unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you, then is there really any reason I would avoid it?

The longer I have been a priest, the more sympathetic I have become to the busy schedules of family life. The complexities of modern life are real and exhausting. But I also have become more grateful for my dad's line in the sand. Things are fun, and life is busy, but if what I purport to believe about the Eucharist is real, it must take pride of place. When I don't make the most important thing the most important thing, everything else crashes. We've seen that with our young people and families... divided, disordered, wounded lives, because we've refused to give anything up for Jesus.

A priest once told me, you can't control most things in your life, but you can almost always control if you get to Mass on Sunday. If Jesus has really made me promises about who He is and what the Eucharist is, why wouldn't I put everything second to that. Control what we can control and come to Mass each Sunday. Even though I was annoyed at the time, I'm grateful that my dad knew his priorities. Do we know ours?

Peace,
Fr. Monteleone

THANK YOU, FR. EMERSON

Fr. Emerson will celebrate his final Mass with us on Sunday, June 28th. He will celebrate the 10:00 AM Mass. All are invited to the auditorium after Mass for a catered brunch.

Please RSVP for the brunch by June 22 using the link on our website at www.stphilip.org or by calling Linda in the Parish Office at (973) 779-6200 if you are planning to attend.

FROM FR. EMERSON

Two years ago, I arrived as a stranger.
Now, I leave with a family in my heart.

Bishop Kevin Sweeney has assigned me as Parochial Vicar of Notre Dame of Mount Carmel Parish in Cedar Knolls, effective July 1st. As I prepare to begin this new chapter of priestly ministry, I want to express my deepest gratitude to all of you.

From the very beginning, you welcomed me with open arms, generous hearts, and countless acts of kindness. Together we have celebrated the Eucharist, shared moments of joy and sorrow, marked important milestones, and grown in faith. These memories will remain with me for years to come.

I warmly invite you to join me for my final Sunday Mass at St. Philip the Apostle Parish on Sunday, June 28, 2026, at 10:00 AM. It would be a great gift to pray together one last time and thank God for all that He has done among us.

Please continue to pray for me as I begin this new assignment. Be assured that wherever I go, you will always have a place in my heart and in my prayers.

With love and gratitude,
Fr. Emerson

"WHY, FATHER" by Fr. Emerson

Q: Father, why is belief in the Eucharist so essential to the Catholic faith? 🤔👉 Did Jesus really mean that His flesh is food and His blood is drink, or was He speaking symbolically? Many Christians say He was speaking figuratively. How do Catholics respond?

A: If you want to know what most clearly separates the Catholic Church from many other Christian communities, look at the Eucharist 🍷✝️.

Catholics do not merely believe that Communion reminds us of Jesus. We believe that the Eucharist is Jesus—His Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity. This belief is not a medieval invention. It comes directly from Christ's words in John 6.

Jesus says: "I am the living bread that came down from heaven... and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world." 🍷🌟

The crowd immediately understands Him literally and becomes disturbed 🤔. They ask: "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?"

Now notice what Jesus does next. He does not say, "Wait, you misunderstood me." Instead, He intensifies His language.

Earlier in the chapter, the ordinary Greek word for eating is used. But beginning in John 6:54, Jesus switches to a much stronger Greek verb: τρώγω (TRO-go), which literally means "to chew," "to gnaw," or "to munch." Jesus says: "Whoever eats (trōgō) my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life." 🍷🍷

If Jesus intended only a symbol, this would have been the perfect moment to clarify. Instead, many disciples leave Him 👤👤. Remarkably, Jesus lets them go.

This is one of the strongest arguments for the belief in the Real Presence. When Jesus is misunderstood elsewhere, He corrects people. Here, He doubles down.

The earliest Christians understood Him literally. Consider Saint Ignatius of Antioch. Writing around A.D. 107—while memories of the apostles were still fresh—he condemned those who denied that the Eucharist is truly the flesh of Christ. Why is his testimony important? Because he was a disciple of the Apostle John, the very apostle who recorded John 6. 📖

The Eucharist is essential because it is not merely something Jesus gives—it is Jesus giving Himself. ❤️

That is why Catholics genuflect before the tabernacle, adore the Blessed Sacrament, and carry the Eucharist in Corpus Christi processions. 👤🌟

Because if John 6 means what it says, then the greatest treasure on earth is not merely a symbol of Christ.

It is Christ Himself. 🍷✝️🔥

Gospel Today
The Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ | John 6:51-58

When Jesus says He is the living bread, He doesn't mean the bread on our p.b.&J sandwiches! He refers to the Bread of Life, Blessed Bread, The Holy Eucharist. Bread that, along with the wine at mass, gives us eternal life. This is what we call the Body & Blood of Christ.

Bread Spread

Take a slice of bread, and spread on peanut butter, cheese spread, hummus or whatever you like, 1/4" thick. Use a plastic knife to "draw" a picture of a fish on your bread spread. Read yourself or ask an older person to read or tell you the Miracle Story of Jesus feeding 5,000 with 5 small loaves and 2 fish (John 6: 1-15), while you eat your snack.

We need BOTH - our daily bread and the Bread of Life.
