

THE FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH

As the sounds of children's laughter and delight still echo in our ears from our Parish Carnival, we all desire freedom of spirit as God's children.

Prayer keeps us young at heart and eager to share from the bounty of God's goodness with generous heart in word and deed.

PSALM 63

Response: Refresh our spirits, O Lord.

O God, you are my God whom I seek;
for you my flesh pines and my soul thirsts like the earth, parched, lifeless and without water.

Refresh our spirits, O Lord.

Thus have I gazed toward you in the sanctuary
to see your power and your glory,
for your kindness is a greater good than life;
my lips shall glorify you.

Refresh our spirits, O Lord.

Thus will I bless you while I live; lifting up my hands, I will call upon your name.
As with the riches of a banquet shall my soul
be satisfied,
and with exultant lips my mouth shall praise
you.

Refresh our spirits, O Lord.

You are my help,
and in the shadow of your wings I shout for joy.
My soul clings fast to you;
your right hand upholds me.

Refresh our spirits, O Lord.

REFLECTION

A YOUTHFUL HEART

by Donal Harrington & Julie Kavanagh

Youth is not a time of life, it is a state of mind;
it is a temper of the will,
a quality of the imagination,
a vigour of the emotions,
a predominance of courage over timidity, of the appetite for adventure over love of ease.

Nobody grows old merely by living a number of years,
people grow old only by deserting their ideals.
Years wrinkle the skin,
but to give up enthusiasm wrinkles the soul.
Worry, doubt, self-distrust, fear and despair, these are the long, long years that bow the head
and turn the growing spirit back to dust.

Whether seventy or sixteen, there is in every being's heart the love of wonder,
the sweet amazement of the stars
and the star like things and thoughts, the undaunted challenge of events,
the unfailing childlike appetite for what is next,
and the joy and the game of life.

You are as young as your faith, as old as your doubt;
as young as your self-confidence, as old as
your fear;
as young as your hope, as old as your despair.

So long as your heart receives messages of beauty, cheer, courage, grandeur and power
from the earth,
from the other,
from the infinite,
so long are you young. . .

CONCLUDING PRAYER

May the Spirit of the living God renew us.
May the Spirit of the risen Christ keep ever alive in our enthusiasm for the gospel.
May the Spirit who makes all things new protect us from losing heart.
In this Spirit may we go on rediscovering and recreating the joy of Christ in the world.
Amen

BLESSING PRAYER FOR FATHER'S DAY

Blessed are You, Lord and Father of All Life, who has given to us
 the gift of the father of our family.
 Today, we honor him,
 and we thank You for the numerous good things that are ours because of him.
 His love for us
 has been a sign of Your divine affection and a sharing in Your holy love.
 His continuous concern for our needs and welfare is a mirror of Your holy providence.
 And so, as we honor him,
 we praise You, Father of All Peoples.

Bless him this day
 with Your strength and holy power that he may continue to be a sign of You, our God, and a priestly parent to our family.

May we, the members of his family, assist him in his holy duties as a parent
 with our respect,
 our obedience
 and our deep affection.

Bless him, Lord,
 with happiness and good health,
 and with peace,
 so that he who has shared of his very life
 may live forever with You,
 his God and heavenly Father.

This blessing and all graces, we pray, descend upon the father of our family:
 in the name of the Father,
 and of the Son
 and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.
